

INTRODUCTION AND PARTY INVITATIONS

Wow! Wow! Wubbzy![™] is a popular show on Nickelodeon that features Wubbzy, a cheerful little guy who loves to play, play, play! Whether it's riding his tooter scooter, baking a chocolate doodleberry cake, or playing a game of kickety-kick ball, he wants to have fun. Widget and Walden are Wubbzy's best friends and they work together to resolve daily problems. With such a darling character, this is a great party for play!

Create a Wubbzy Party Invitation in the shape of Wubbzy himself. Using yellow cardstock, make a mini-Wubbzy shape and on the inside have him invite the party guests and provide all of the party details.

Use the language: Wow! Wow! ____ (Birthday Child's name) is having a party!

DECORATIONS

Wubbzy is a little yellow character. Purchase yellow balloons, streamers, and tableware in keeping with the theme and offset the yellow party goods with navy blue as well for napkins, plates, and other party décor.

Create Wubbzy to place on your front door by drawing a large Wubbzy on yellow poster board.

Purchase a yellow tablecloth and find pictures of Wubbzy on the Internet and print them out. Color these pictures in and cut them out. Place on the yellow tablecloth and lay clear contact paper directly on top of the pictures to stick them to the tablecloth. A perfect thematic party tablecloth.

Purchase photo sticker paper and print off small images of Wubbzy. Create stickers and place these on the napkins and cups on the party table and on balloons too.

GAMES AND ACTIVITIES

When the kids arrive, give each guest a Wubbzy T-shirt. Print a Wubbzy picture onto iron-on transfer paper and create your T-shirts.

Party Theme Planning From BIRTHDAYS

Wubbzy's birthday episode is quite cute and good inspiration for your own party. Have the kids watch this episode. Walden is looking for marshmallows to make a perfect marshmallow lasagna to help Wubbzy celebrate, but he finds that they are out of season! Hide marshmallows throughout the party area and have the kids search for their own marshmallows to help Wubbzy enjoy his day!

Play Pin the Tail on the Wubbzy. Using a yellow poster board, draw Wubbzy and his tail for the kids to play the game.

Play Kickety-Kick Ball. Wubbzy's favorite game of course.

Play Ring Around Wubbzy's Tail. Make a large Wubbzy out of cardboard with a large Wubbzy tail. See who can get the most rings around Wubbzy's tail.

Have a Walden Story Hour and read Wubbzy books.

Daizy's Flower Fun. Have the kids make flowers out of colorful tissue paper and pipe cleaners.

Widget's Inventions. Provide the kids with Tinkertoys® and/or Lego® toys to create their own inventions.
